LONG TITLE

A Statute to provide for the rules by which Clergy of the Diocese should retire.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS it is desired that Clergy of the Diocese should retire at the age of seventy years.

The Synod of the Diocese of North West Australia resolves as follows.

Chapter 1 – Preliminary

NAME

This is the Clergy Retiring Statute 1972.

DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

In this Statute –

“Clergyman” shall mean assistant bishop, priest or deacon.

Chapter 2 – Scope of the Statute

1. Every clergyman who after the passing of this Statute attains the age of seventy years and is still holding office in the Diocese shall retire from the said office forthwith and shall not be prevented by this Statute from holding Bishop’s licence.

Chapter 3 – Regulations & Related Legislation

REGULATIONS

Regulation making power

The Diocesan Council may from time to time make, amend or repeal regulations (e.g. policies and procedures) not inconsistent with the provisions of this Statute providing for records arising out of or incidental to the operation of this Statute and for all or any of the purposes, whether general or to meet particular cases, which may be convenient for the administration of this Ordinance or which may be necessary or expedient to carry out the overriding purposes of this Statute.

Chapter 4 – General

RESPONSIBILITIES

Review

The Diocesan Council will review the operation of this Statute on or before six years after its commencement.

Records management

The Registry maintains all records relevant to administering this Statute using its recordkeeping system.
